PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.Supporting Evidence: Mr. Zuniga-Torres was found guilty of vehicular assault in Yakima County Superior Court, case number 13-1-00263-4, on November 8, 2013. He was sentenced to 13 months incarceration and 18 months community supervision.

The following is a summary of an incident report completed by the Washington State Patrol: On February 16, 2013, Washington State troopers were called to a three-vehicle accident in Yakima County. The investigation revealed Mr. Zuniga-Torres was driving a silver 2003 BMW when he struck a maroon 1996 Toyota Camry. The force of the impact pushed the Camry into the oncoming lane of travel, where it collided head-on with a red 1999 Dodge Caravan.

Amanda Sanchez-Morales, who was a passenger in Mr. Zuniga-Torres' vehicle, sustained a substantial eye injury and was eventually transported to Harborview Medical Center in Seattle, Washington, for treatment. The driver of the Toyota Camry sustained a fractured leg and arm, and was transferred to Harborview Medical Center due to the substantial nature of her injuries. There were two other occupants in the Camry at the time of the collision, both of whom were treated and released from hospitals in Yakima County, Washington. The driver of the Dodge Caravan underwent emergency surgery to remove her spleen at Yakima Memorial Hospital. She also sustained a fracture to her arm, fractures to both legs, and a fractured ankle. She was later transferred to Harborview Medical Center where she underwent two surgeries to repair her legs and ankle. There was an infant child in the Dodge Caravan at the time of the collision. The infant child was in an infant car seat and found to be uninjured.

Mr. Zuniga-Torres was arrested on the date of the collision and provided troopers with identification identifying him as Alvino L. Leon. Mr. Zuniga-Torres subsequently informed investigators of his true name, which was confirmed by fingerprint return. A blood sample that was taken from Mr. Zuniga-Torres the date of the collision returned showing the defendant with a blood ethanol level of .23.
